T.P. 4/30/67 ★ ★ ★

A huge cache of small arms, grenades and ammunition was seized last week in a Berkeley, Calif., warehouse, and the alleged consignee said he had planned to open a business to provide guns and munitions as lawn ornaments. "Every lawn ought to have one," he maintained. It would seem that the landscaping industry has long needed a man of his caliber.